INTRODUCING:

NCC Farmer Series

Each farm included in this series has been providing clean, potent and flavorful cannabis for our clientele for years. Honeydew Farms is known for its one of a kind, classic purple Indica flower, Purple Rain, which is an exclusive phenotype grown under ideal conditions by an experienced hand. Indy Boys' sativa Sour Diesel is one of several popular strains expertly grown by passionate local farmers. Highness Gardens produces one of our most sought-after hybrid strains in Cabbage Patch, popular among sativa and indica lovers alike for its well-balanced and exceptional effects, and smooth flavor. Choose any of these strains for an example of the best cannabis varieties cultivated in the most prolific growing region in the world.

TIP OF THE MONTH:

BE AWARE

As cannabis plants grow in size, they can sometimes attract unwanted attention. Make sure fence heights exceed plant growth throughout the season, since just one nosy neighbor has been known to cause problems that can prevent harvest. Also, make sure that you are protective of your garden. Although cannabis plants are gorgeous, visitors should be on a need-to-know basis. While the majority of society seems to be coming around to the many benefits of this plant, there is still danger in alerting strangers and mere acquaintances to the presence of your crop. Be careful, but also take the time to enjoy every stage of your plants' growth; the best way to keep them safe and healthy is to pay attention to them.

CULTIVATING WISDOM™

JULY CULTIVATING TIP

BENEFICIAL BUGS

July is a great time to think about natural pest controls for outdoor plants. At this point, plants are in their vegetative stage; they are growing rapidly, but are usually not yet developing flowers. As a result, there are lots of methods that can be used to prevent bug problems throughout the grow cycle. Our most highly recommended alternative is to use beneficial bugs in your garden, such as ladybugs and praying mantises. These insects are an excellent addition to your garden because they prey on other harmful insects that can cause extensive damage to cannabis flowers. Mature praying mantises in particular, are known to eat the green caterpillars that often destroy the best kolás at the top of each plant. This is also the time to employ other organic pesticides, so that any lingering flavors can be flushed out prior to the flowering phase. These tips should contribute toward an issue-free outdoor season.
